President's Report

On behalf of the Board of UTS Olympic I welcome the Directors, the players and the fans of the Morwell Falcons to Leichhardt Oval this evening. The match promises to be a spirited contest as both teams have recorded high scores this year and their previous match saw six goals scored.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all UTS Olympic's supporters for coming to our games in such large numbers. Already this year we are recording the highest average home attendances and I am sure that this level of support has contributed to the success of the team on the field.

I also wish to thank the hard work undertaken so far this season by all associated with the Club; the Directors, the Coaching Staff of all teams, all our players, our office administrators, our tireless volunteer ground workers, our cheerleaders, the Supporters Committee, the Ladies Committee and the contribution and assistance of our associated partner UTS, and all our other valued sponsors.

A special note of thanks must be made to John Koundouris who unfortunately has had to relinquish his job as Gear Steward after over twenty years of outstanding service. The club wishes him and his family all success in the future. An article by our captain David Barrett on John's contribution to the club appears in this programme — see page 10.

Good luck to both teams and compliments of the season to all. I look forward to seeing you all to celebrate the New Year on 30 December against Canberra Cosmos.

Coach's Report

This report was written before our away game against Melbourne Knights due to printing deadlines at Christmas time. Our two home games against Brisbane and Newcastle were both very important games for us as we were desperate for success.

Fortunately, we were able to gain maximum points from these games. We have five very important games before the January break away to Melbourne Knights, Adelaide City and Wollongong with home games against Morwell and Canberra. So many things could change in the next month depending on the results we gain in these games.

Against Brisbane we had a very tight game with very few chances for either side. However, our players gradually got on top and gained their reward when Kris Trajanovski scored a late penalty for us. Against Newcastle we played some good open soccer and managed to get amongst the goals again.

We were given a start after an own goal, then Walter Ardone scored after a good build up. Walter again played a good ball for Kris Trajanovski to volley home our third goal. Then Normie Tome scored a very good individual goal to give us a 4-0 win. That goal was our 24th in twelve games. Last year we scored a total of 24 in a 24 game season so we are on the improve.

Steve Darby and I concentrate a lot of our work on shooting and creating scoring opportunities and it is pleasing to see we have had nine different players score our goals this season.

On the injury front George Sorras has had a knee operation and will be missing until February, but knowing George he will be working hard to be back playing as soon as possible. Derek Poimer is progressing well, but we have no definite time as to when he will return playing. Elias Augerinos will be having a cartilage operation and should be back in February.

As this is the last report before Christmas, I would like to thank all our supporters for the support they have given us so far this season and wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and safe New Year on behalf of the players and the coaching staff.

— DAVID RATCLIFFE

Kimon has been one of the exciting new faces at UTS Olympic this year. After considerable achievements as a player both at South Melbourne and more recently Marconi-Fairfield, Kimon has quickly shown the large UTS Olympic crowds the attacking style of play that has earned him the reputation of being one of the League's most exciting forwards.

Kimon's first game saw him score a penalty against Newcastle and his 'shirtless celebration' of his goal against South Melbourne brought Kimon to the centre of attention of soccer spectators across the country and reflected his great enthusiasm for the game.

Kimon firmly believes that the success he enjoyed at both an individual and team level at his previous clubs can be repeated at UTS Olympic. He has been impressed by the enthusiasm of the players and the UTS Olympic supporters.

He looks forward to playing his part in continuing the attacking style of play that has seen UTS Olympic make such an impressive start to the season. Off the field Kimon has been often seen on SBS' "On the Ball" programme. He was sorely missed because of injury in the matches against his old club Marconi, West Adelaide, Brisbane and Newcastle and we look forward to the return of his exciting style of play.

Socceroo Ned Zelic should be on top of the international football tree, but 1995 is a year he would rather forget.

In January there was hope that Zelic could again be a force in the Borussia Dortmund line-up. Sadly, his career in Germany was stilted after a great debut season after the Barcelona Olympics.

I spent some time with Ned at his parents home in Canberra home earlier this year. He was back home because the German Bundesliga takes a two-month break.

Zelic was in good spirits considering his lack of football the previous 18 months. He ended up being on the bench when Dortmund clinched the championship on the last day of the season.

However, deep down he knew it was time to move on. In three seasons Zelic played 41 games with only four appearances last season.

Despite a lack of regular football because of injuries and suspension, Zelic, was being chased by a few clubs and finally settled with English Premier League side, Queens Park Rangers.

However, more tragedy was to follow with the former Sydney Olympic star making less than a handful of appearances. Zelic has no regrets his short-lived career in elite English football is over.

He was moved back to Germany and joined Eintracht Frankfurt in a loan-transfer deal worth 2.6 million. He had fled black to Germany unwell and unhappy.

"It is unlikely I will play in England again for the rest of my career, but that doesn't bother me," Zelic said.

"Why would I go back there when I was so unhappy. I have no regrets at all. I wanted to leave.

"I am going to try and forget what has happened as quickly as possible. There is going to be bad memories, but I'm happy to be going and to get on with my career."

"Eintracht is the perfect club for me. They want me to play sweeper, which is my favourite position, and they want to get into Europe next year by reaching the top five.

"I desperately want to play in Europe too. I see it as a new stage in my career where I can once again parade my talents and hopefully come out on top."

Zelic confirmed that his recurring left knee injury was cured following an operation in September by the same specialist who put the English star, Paul Gascoigne, back on the field in 1991 after a crippling injury.

A virus which he feared may have been glandular fever had also cleared. QPR and Eintracht will decide at the end of the season if the transfer will become permanent.

There's no doubt Zelic is a class act. He has seen many highs in football and has also experienced many lows.

"Virtually from the day Ned arrived in this country he had not been happy and has subsequently found it impossible to settle," said QPR manager, Ray Wilkins.

"After returning to fitness following a knee operation Ned's form has not been what either he or I know he is capable of and I know only too well that if you are desperately unhappy off the pitch your performances reflect it.

"For my part I know we signed a quality player and that is what makes this situation all the more frustrating. We had done everything possible to accommodate Ned."

Just before I sign off, all the very best for Christmas and the New Year!!!

A Tribute to John 'Yani' Koundouris

by DAVID BARRETT

Anybody who has ever been associated with Pan Hellenic/Sydney Olympic/UTS Olympic over the past thirty years as a player, coach or supporter would surely know of the contribution Yani has made to our club as its gear steward, a position he has sadly had to relinquish recently due to ill health.

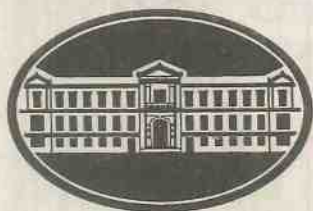

If you have ever been to a first team training session you would have seen Yani chasing balls all over the park, providing drinks for the team members and generally doing anything possible to help out. When the team plays at interstate venues Yani is the first person at the airport to wish the team well on its departure and is always the first to greet the team on its return win, lose or draw.

Yani's enthusiasm for the club and players is legendary. During games he is always 'bouncing' along the sidelines as he is too nervous to be seated and he passionately celebrates the team's goals. When the team wins I doubt whether anyone could wipe the smile off his face.

People often ask what it is that is so special about playing for UTS Olympic and I firmly believe that the answer lies in people devoting themselves to the club. None have done it as selflessly and as passionately as Yani.

Over the years much has happened at Olympic. Many coaches and players have come and gone yet Yani for so long has been a constant feature of the club. He has been the longest and most loyal servant of the club and its players. Yani, I believe, is the type of person you only meet once in a lifetime. His contribution to the club will be greatly missed and I wish him and his family good luck always.

In the new year all refereeing organisations will commence training courses for new referees. The courses, which cover the laws of the game, basic refereeing techniques and "what to do when.....happens", are open to anyone and becoming a referee is an excellent way to become involved in the game for all members of the family; fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and partners. Many new referees simply want to referee junior football at the weekend for the fun and exercise, others are aiming for the top whilst the majority are somewhere in between.

The majority of new referees start by officiating at junior games and then progress through the ranks as they gain experience. There are many referees who also play and/or coach and appointments boards always take other commitments into consideration.

Refereeing is not just for the men. At the time of writing Jenny Bray, Sheena Storrie and Mary Young, who referee men's football during the winter season, are officiating at the Women's Four Nation Tournament in Canberra and many districts have women refereeing at all levels.

If you are interested in becoming a referee or you simply wish to learn the laws complete the coupon below and I will forward more details.

QUESTIONS:

1. Play is just outside the penalty area when the referee is struck by the ball, knocking him to the ground. The referee is dazed and the next thing he sees is the ball lying in the back of the net and the attacking team celebrating. Can a goal be awarded?
2. The goalkeeper takes a goal-kick and plays the ball towards a full-back standing on the edge of the penalty area. The fullback sees a forward running towards him so he moves into the penalty area and picks up the ball with his hands. How is play restarted?
3. The referee is running with the whistle in his mouth and he accidentally blows it when calling 'play on'. What happens?

District:

1. A goal can only be awarded if a neutral (official) linesman confirms that a fair goal has been scored.
2. Retake the goal-kick — the ball is not in play until it has left the penalty area.
3. Play is stopped and restarted with a drop-ball where the ball was when the referee accidentally blew the whistle.

"Development Corner"

by LAKI KONISTIS

It is with very much pleasure that I report to you that the "UTS Olympic Development Program" has been in full swing for many months already – even before a ball has been kicked in this year's national soccer competition.

Already over thirty schools have been treated to an unforgettable promotional visit by many of our club's high profile players.

Peter Tsekenis and Con Parodis with the children of Undercliffe Public School.

The most recent visits have been to:

* Undercliffe Public School

* Marist College Eastwood

If you would like UTS Olympic to visit your school for any promotional activity, from a coaching seminar to attending your school's presentation evening, simply complete the coupon below.
